

JUDGE BROWN'S STIRRING APPEAL

For Country's Youth Heard by Large Audience.

Crime Among Children a Disease Needing Treatment Rather Than Punishment.

STRIKING ILLUSTRATIONS USED.

Youthful enthusiasm was doubly evident in the lecture last night by Judge Willis Brown, of Salt Lake City, under the auspices of the Woman's club at the Kentucky theater, before a thoroughly representative audience, on the subject of juvenile reform. Enthusiasm first, for boys in general, and enthusiasm in his own personality of an interesting and highly boyish kind. Like the rush of a football player, Judge Brown jumped into the middle of things, and the audience, which had anticipated the usual introductory remarks, were gripped from the start with an interest that his enthusiasm never let wane until his intensely dramatic appeal at the close, for parents to awake to their responsibility toward the country's youth. Judge R. T. Lightfoot introduced Judge Brown.

There is that in Judge Brown's manner of speaking, so informal yet so forceful, that reminded the audience of a thoroughly aroused boy defending his honor. It was felt that if such enthusiasm resided in every court, juvenile criminals and degenerates would become as scarce as Judge Brown said they had become in Salt Lake City. The reformer fairly bristles from Judge Brown's personality and if this lecture is generally given over the country, it was felt that a wonderful reform in the handling of boys would result. He touched on some high points in moral conceptions of our duties to our fellowmen and especially to our children, but the Paducah audience backed up his stands with genuine applause. In person, Judge Brown was surprisingly young.

Boy Not Responsible.
After giving instances from personal experience with criminal boys, Judge Brown laid down the general principle that juvenile reform was due to the public becoming convinced that the souls of boys are more important than property. We must not imprison the boys to get them out of our way, but to inculcate in them the moral principles their parents neglected to instill. Children are not born bad and will be as good as the adult examples before them. The inconsistency of civil law in treating the boy as a minor in all things, except when he broke the criminal laws, was bitterly denounced by Judge Brown, who said that the minor could not sell property legally, but if he stole a bicycle, a man's punishment was meted out. He did not believe that boys under eighteen years old were responsible for their acts.

Juvenile courts recognizing this fact, treat the boys as boys. Then Judge Brown went into details with the methods of reforming habitual boy offenders and in this connection used chairs in most effective illustrations. Representing the home, the juvenile court, the detention school, the ranch home and the reform school, with chairs, he showed the different stages of reform. The detention school was managed more like a boys' school, where the boys are placed on their honor and the idea of criminality, suggested by the iron-barred reform school, is lacking. He gave interesting instances of the latent honor in the most neglected boys and made the assertion, that boy for boy, he would trust them sooner than he would man for man.

The Ranch.
The ranch was a second stage in the reform where boys more hardened were placed and allowed to feel their importance by managing the institution. Here, too, surprising developments in morals were evident. With these preliminary institutions, Judge Brown found that the reform school rarely was needed. In his experience with boys he has found that many need doctors rather than courts, as they of hereditary and environmental causes made them criminals. Many simply have animal spirits that want expression, and they are criminals simply because these spirits never have been given proper direction. With boy bands, betterment clubs and other organizations, Judge Brown found the means to give the right expression to the boys' spirits, and in Salt Lake City, under these treatments, no boy has been arrested in five months, in a city of 100,000 population.

In his final remarks Judge Brown summed up the lecture by declaring that after all, the juvenile court was a necessary evil, and that it was only in the home that boys can get the principles needed to right citizenship. We must adopt preventive rather than curative measures, and he in-

AUTOMOBILE RACES WILL BE BIG EVENT

Officials and Entries Will be Announced When Aldermen Act.

The council last night gave permission to the Horse Show association to hold a series of auto races on South Third street during the meet next week, and it remains for the aldermen to concur in the action.

Mr. Dan Fitzpatrick and Mr. Richard Rudy will have charge of the races, and will announce the officials and entries as soon as the aldermen endorse the council's action.

It is proposed to have the races on the mornings of Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, from 10:30 to noon, and the course will be Third street from Broad to Broadway, with Broad street as the starting point and Broadway as the finishing.

The autoists have entered into the spirit of the affair and it promises to be one of the best events of next week. It is proposed to have a parade of all the machines in the city the first morning, and the committee desires every auto owner in the city to join in. The formation and route of the parade will be announced later.

The Horse Show association has donated some purses for the races, which will be announced later, along with the entries.

Musical Drill Rehearsal.
Dr. Vorls had a very satisfactory rehearsal of the men who are to take part in the musical drill at the park last night and will have rehearsals again tonight.

STANDARD OIL.
New York, N. Y., Sept. 18.—Several witnesses were called today in the case to dissolve the Standard Oil company of New Jersey. Attorney Kellogg is directing the heaviest fire at the organization and conduct of the trustees. This trusteeship was the beginning of the trust. Assistant Controller Fay, of company, brought some books into court but little of importance was learned from them.

CABBAGE SNAKE BOBS UP AGAIN

The cabbage snake which caused so much alarm in this country several years ago, bobbed up again in Paducah yesterday. Mrs. T. J. Evans, of 1219 Tennessee street, discovered what she believes to be one of the deadly species of reptiles. Any way she discovered it in a head of cabbage whether it was a cabbage snake or not. The snake, or worm, was coiled up inside leaves of a cabbage head she cut open. When stretched at length it measured nearly a foot long, and shot fangs from its mouth.

DIME ADDED BECAUSE THE FAIR IS "DRY."

Owensboro, Ky., Sept. 18.—The Owensboro county fair opened here with a good attendance. This is the first fair ever given here without the sale of liquor being a source of revenue to the company. Last spring the county went dry, and the county officials refused a license to the company to sell liquor. Because of this ten cents has been added to the usual admission price to make up for the loss of revenue.

LAST HOGSHEAD OF TOBACCO SOLD

Association Salesman Disposed of Seven Hogsheads at Good Prices.

Mr. A. N. Veal, salesman of the Dark Tobacco Growers' association, yesterday sold seven hogsheads of tobacco, the last of the 1906 crop stored here, at an average price of $12 per hundred pounds.

Mr. Veal stated today that the new crop which is practically all controlled by the association, will begin to reach the Paducah market by November 1 and expects the farmers to realize even better prices for the 1907 crop than for last year's tobacco as the tobacco acreage is short this year though the quality is believed to be good.

Tobacco controlled by the association and sold at the Paducah salesrooms has brought higher prices this year than any market in the western district.

FIRE AT GRAYSON.
Leitchfield, Ky., Sept. 18.—Grayson Springs, one of the oldest summer resorts in Kentucky, was visited by fire last night. Three hotels were destroyed with a loss of $35,000. As the season is practically over there were few guests, and these managed to get out safe with their belongings. One of the burned buildings was 80 years old. The others were modern.

THE WEATHER.
Increasing cloudiness tonight followed by rain tonight or Thursday.

TO AROUSE INTEREST IN CONVENTION

Secretary Coons Speaks to Farmers on Good Roads and Immigration.

D. W. Coons, secretary of the Commercial club, is working tooth and nail for the immigration and good roads convention, and adopts every means of inciting interest among rural residents. Today he is making speeches in the county to arouse interest, and indications point towards one of the biggest conventions ever held in the state.

Mr. Coons is today at Maxon Mills where the farmers' institute is meeting. There are many farmers in attendance and Mr. Coons took advantage of the opportunity to explain the intent of the convention. A cordial invitation was extended all to come to Paducah to participate in the convention, and many accepted, declaring in favor of immigration and good roads, as explained by the secretary.

Institute Meeting.
The institute is transacting regular routine business at Maxon Mills, discussing crops and chances of betterment of conditions. There are many farmers in attendance, and it is a sort of gala day in that locality.

DETENTION HOME FOR JUVENILE OFFENDERS

Will be Provided in Paducah Result of Judge Brown's Lecture.

Paducah is to have a juvenile detention home, a result of the visit of Judge Willis Brown, of Salt Lake City, who addressed a large audience at the Kentucky last night. Work towards realizing such an institution has already begun.

"Yes, Paducah will have a detention home for the confinement of juveniles," stated County Judge R. T. Lightfoot, "a result of Judge Brown's visit. He created an interest among the people, and I tell you he did a lot of good with his short visit and speech. The ladies have taken up the matter and have begun to advocate it."

What steps will be taken toward making it a reality remain to be seen, but it is assured that no time will be wasted in mapping out details. Plans will be well laid and an active campaign instituted to secure funds for the detention home.

Builders Organize.
At a meeting of building contractors tonight a permanent organization will be effected. Builders were formerly solidly organized but let the association drop two years ago, taking little interest in the body. The recent settlement of trouble with the carpenters and other trades unions, brought them closer together again and reorganization was decided on.

GEERS ENTERS STAR HORSES

Noted Turfman Coming to Horse Show.

Great Johnson Horse "Elinore" Has Also Been Entered—Has Record of 2:07 on Half Mile Track.

A BOX SALE FOR TONIGHT

Fulfillment of promises to give the public the best there is to be had in the way of race horses, was realized this morning when promoters were authorized to announce that E. F. (Eddie) Geers, the famous driver and race horse man, peer of them all, will be here for the races with three star entries. What the entries will be is not known, but anything Geers starts is the very best, and the well known turfman always goes in to win. Geers is owner of the famous "Highball", and sportsmen here entertain hopefullly rumors that Highball will be one of the three starters.

C. H. Harris, who was sent to Illinois to pay freight on every horse he could secure to enter Paducah fall races, telegraphed George Goodman this morning of the Geers entries. He also stated that the great Johnson horse, "Elinore", will be entered. "Elinore" has a record on half mile tracks of 2:07. Harris reports success and is booking entries as fast as he can take them, but is accepting only the best to be had. He is now at Sullivan, Ill., and will remain out booking until a few days prior to the race meet.

Tonight at the Palmer House an auction of boxes at the horse show will be held. Last night it was postponed on account of Judge Willis Brown's address, and other entertainments. Sale will begin at 8 o'clock.

Child Dies of Stomach Trouble.
Gertie Ellen Hurley, daughter of Charles Hurley, 13 months old, died of stomach trouble on the Oaks Station road this morning and was buried this afternoon in Livingston county.

WILL CONSIDER PLANS FOR STEAM PLANT

To Furnish Heat, Light and Water For Court House.

An unfavorable report will be made by a special committee appointed by fiscal court to confer with representatives of the Fairbanks-Morse company of Louisville, relative to installing a private lighting, heat and water plant at the court house and jail. However, the committee will confer relative to securing a steam plant, gasoline being considered not a feasible plan. If a private plant is decided on, and indications point that way, it will involve an expense on the county jailer, which at present he does not have to bear.

"We consider the gasoline plan not feasible," stated Justice C. W. Emery, one of the committee, "and have asked for a special meeting of fiscal court for Friday at which we will recommend that we call for bids for a steam plant. The statutes provide that the county jailer shall heat the jail and court house and pay for all fuel, so we do not figure in the expense of an engineer or the fuel. The jailer is the man to bear this part of the expense."

This will necessitate McCracken county's jailer employing a turnkey who is an engineer, combining the two offices.

$5,000 RAISED FOR THE CONFEDERATE MONUMENT

The Confederate Veterans held a very interesting meeting at the City hall last night. It was a regular meeting of the organization, but the presence of Mr. Frederick B. Tighman, of New York, added interest to it.

Mr. Tighman addressed the meeting, and gave a very interesting talk. He told of his plans for the statue he proposes erecting for his father and also discussed the Confederate monument. He said the idea is to have the monument a Confederate monument, and appreciated the honor of the permission granted him to make the statue to his father a part of it.

The Veterans and the Daughters of the Confederacy have raised $5,000 for the monument, and Mr. Tighman has said the statue he will erect will be one that would reflect honor on the city, implying that the cost would not be considered.

PROHIBITION WINS IN NEW STATE

Democrats Claim Election of Haskell For Governor.

Telegraphers' Strike Interferes With Returns, but Reports Bear Out Democratic Claim.

CAMPAIGN WAS VERY BITTER.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 18.—Reports from the Oklahoma election indicate that prohibition has certainly carried, and it is probable that the constitution has been accepted, and that Haskell (Dem.) has been elected governor.

Although the campaign was the bitterest and most strenuous campaign in the history of the territory the election passed over quietly with the exception of the demonstration of the Prohibitionists. In addition to the regular state ticket, the prohibition question was also voted upon throughout the two territories, and Oklahoma City voted on bonds for the extension of the sewer system and water works.

Democratic State Chairman Thompson declares the constitution will be ratified by 100,000 majority, that state wide prohibition has been adopted and Haskell and the Democratic ticket elected by from 30,000 to 40,000 majority. The very few reports received bear out Mr. Thompson in his views on state wide prohibition and the constitution.

Friends of Haskell are jubilant. They claim that he was running 20,000 to 30,000 ahead of his ticket. Republican headquarters were serene, however, and stuck to their estimate of 20,000 to 30,000 majority for Frantz.

The telegraphers' strike, which includes the Pioneer Telephone company's lines as well as the Western Union and Postal, is a great handicap, and the chairman of the committees say they do not expect enough returns to enable them to form a definite opinion of the result before tonight or possibly Thursday afternoon.

MOTHER IS VICTIM OF HORRIBLE ACCIDENT

Mrs. Rufus Rainey Seriously Burned By Overturning Carbollic Acid.

Mrs. Rufus G. Rainey, of Nineteenth and Jackson streets, wife of the well known Illinois Central woodworker, was horribly burned about the breast yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock by accidentally overturning a vial of carbollic acid. Four hours later Mrs. Rainey gave birth to a daughter.

Mrs. Rainey desired carbollic acid to use in disinfecting, and reached up on a high shelf to secure it. She knocked the vial from the shelf and the stopper came out. Acid spread over her bosom and inflicted serious burns.

Dr. C. H. Brothers was summoned and applied soothing lotions to the burns. Mrs. Rainey this morning is resting well, and it is thought she will recover.

NEW ICE PLANT WILL BE BUILT

Paducah is to have a new ice and refrigerating plant. The Paducah Brewery company has decided to add this feature to its business and bids were received on the building some weeks ago. The contract will be let for the brick and carpenter work separately, and are being drawn up now by the company's attorneys.

The plant will have a capacity of 150 tons a day and cost approximately $50,000.

Mr. George Katterjohn secured the contract for the stone and brick work and work will be started as soon as the material is secured.

WOMEN IN HOSPITALS

Experiences of Mrs. Rockwood and Miss Tierney

MISS MARGARET TIERNEY

MRS. CHAS. A. ROCKWOOD

A large proportion of the operations performed in our hospitals are upon women and girls for some organic trouble.

Why should this be the case?

Because they have neglected themselves, as every one of these patients in the hospital beds had plenty of warning in those dragging sensations, pains at left or right of abdomen, backaches, nervous exhaustion, inflammation, ulceration, displacements, and other organic weaknesses.

All of these symptoms are indications of an unhealthy condition of the female system and if not heeded the penalty has to be paid by a dangerous operation. When these symptoms manifest themselves, do not drag along until you are obliged to go to the hospital and submit to an operation—but remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, has saved hundreds of women from surgical operations.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured more cases of feminine ills than any other one remedy. Such letters as the following are constantly being received by Mrs. Pinkham to prove our claims.

Mrs. C. A. Rockwood, teacher of Parliamentary Law, of 58 Free St., Fredonia, N. Y., writes:

"For years I suffered with female trouble. It was decided that an operation was necessary, and although I submitted to a serious operation my sufferings continued, until Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended and it proved a marvelous remedy, so quickly did it restore my health. I cannot thank you sufficiently for the good it has done me."

Miss Margaret Tierney, of No. 328 W. 25th Street, New York, writes:

"When only eighteen years of age our physician decided that an operation was necessary to permit of my womanly organs performing their natural functions. My mother objected and being urged by a relative to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did so. I soon improved in health, the proper conditions were established and I am well and strong, thanks to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

No other remedy has such unqualified endorsement as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. No other remedy in the world has such a record of cures of female ills.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. From the symptoms given, the trouble may be located and the quickest and surest way of recovery advised. Out of her vast volume of experience in treating female ills, Mrs. Pinkham probably has the very knowledge that may help your case. Her advice is free and always helpful.

THEATRICAL NOTES

To travel constantly up and down this old world of ours, and regardless of time or expense collect and concentrate into one program, all that will excite your interest, wonder and amusement; this is the unique vocation of Lyman H. Howe who will show his new program at the Kentucky Friday, September 20.

Time, patient research and money in themselves are not enough to insure the success he has achieved. A knowledge of the public taste, a knowledge of what is really interesting and what is not, what to take an what to ignore, is absolutely necessary in the collection of a program that must be uniformly and universally interesting. Mr. Howe's many years of experience as an exhibitor annually to over a million people, has surely qualified him as perhaps, no other exhibitor, is qualified. However, even knowledge gained by experience does not suffice. No one can achieve success as a journalist unless possessed of what is vaguely but best expressed as the "news sense." It must be innate, instinctive. It cannot be cultivated. Precisely as some possess such "news sense," Mr. Howe possesses an instinctive "picture sense" that enables him instantly to know whether a given scene, event, or adventure will incite interest, surprise or entertainment. It is a fortunate combination of these things that enable him to show it so well that after seeing his exhibition you can discuss the scenes you have seen as though you had really lived them.

When trains are telescoped the passengers are apt to see stars.

BRYAN SPEAKS

HERE OCTOBER 8.

William Jennings Bryan will be in Paducah October 8 and will doubtless deliver an address. Local Democrats are preparing for his reception. Notification of his visit came yesterday in a letter to Hon. James M. Lang from Dr. Milton Board, of this city, who is now in Louisville in charge of the public speaking board of the state Democratic party.

In Proportion.

For many weeks the irritable merchant had been riveted to his bed by typhoid fever. Now he was convalescing. He clamored for something to eat, declaring that he was starving.

"Tomorrow you may have something to eat," promised the doctor. The merchant realized that there would be a restraint to his appetite, yet he saw, in his vision, a modest steaming meal placed at his bed-side.

"Here is your dinner," said the nurse next day, as she gave the glowing patient a spoonful of tapioca pudding, "and the doctor emphasizes that everything else you do must be in the same proportion."

Two hours later the nurse heard a frantic call from the bed chamber. "Nurse," breathed the man, heavily, "I want to do some reading; bring me a postage stamp."—Harper's Weekly.

The merchant fleets of the globe now total 39,438,000 tons, or nearly 2,000,000 more than a year ago. Of this total no less than 33,969,000 tons represents steam shipping, and 17,001,000 tons of it is under the British flag.

TO AID JUVENILE COURT WORK.

International Society Is Incorporated
Under Laws of Illinois.

Juvenile court work throughout the country is expected to be advanced by the activities of the International Juvenile Court society, just incorporated under the Illinois law.

The incorporators are Miss Jane Addams, of Hull House; Judge Julian W. Mack and Henry W. Thurston, chief probation officer of the juvenile court. The society has been formed in consequence of a decision reached some months ago at a meeting in Chicago attended by persons interested in juvenile court work from all parts of the United States.

At the suggestion of Judge Ben B.
Lindsey of Denver it was determined to form a permanent society of those active in the work and to establish national headquarters. The headquarters will be either in Chicago or Denver.

Twenty-seven directors have been chosen, including the three incorporators. Among the directors are Judge Lindsey, Judge Tuttle, Judge
Delacey of Washington, D. C., and Judge Wilkin of Brooklyn.

The directors are to meet in Chicago next month and will then decide upon detailed plans for the activities of the new organization. It is intended to distribute literature dealing with juvenile court work, to send out speakers on the subject and generally to lend aid and guidance to juvenile court workers.

Bradley's Quick Reply.

John K. Hendrick at Pineville told the following story of an incident which occurred during the administration of Governor Bradley:
"I was in Frankfort one day, and while walking along the street met the governor. He said:

"Hello, what are you doing here?"
"I am after a pardon," I said, jumping out with the first thing I happened to think about.

"A pardon for whom?" he asked.
"For myself," I said. "I was coming down on the train today, sitting in my seat, quiet and unobtrusive, doing no injury to anybody and communing with my inner thoughts, when a man came up and called me Governor Bradley. I rose up right there and killed him on the spot."

"Good," replied Governor Bradley, "you did exactly right and you deserve a pardon, for if you had not killed him I would."

Chewing Gum Dangerous.

Physicians will hold a consultation at the Samaritan Hospital to determine whether or not chewing gum has locked the jaws of Miss Elizabeth Goodman, a pretty young woman, who lives at 1328 Boston street.
In so far as the jaws are concerned, Miss Goodman has all the symptoms of lockjaw, but she has had no injury whatsoever, and it would be manifestly impossible for lockjaw to develop from the habit of chewing gum.

But that is the only explanation of Miss Goodman's ailment that any one has been able to think of, and the girl's mother, Mrs. Mary Houseal, is confident that chewing gum is responsible.

"My daughter is passionately fond of chewing gum," she said. "When she came home from work yesterday she told me she could not eat luncheon because of inability to move her jaws. The same was true at supper last night and breakfast this morning. I asked her if she had injured herself. She said she had not.

"Then she told me that on Sunday she chewed gum all day long, and that night her jaws fairly ached.

"During this week she said she had only used her usual amount of gum, but it is my belief that her jaws have become disarranged and inflamed from the constant movement."—Philadelphia North American.

Citizens of Paducah and west Kentucky should not fail to grasp the importance of making the good roads and immigration convention a success. Nothing could be of more importance to both city and county than good roads, while the need of a desirable class of immigrants to locate in the country and cultivate the barren acres is too apparent for comment. Let every one lend a helping hand to the convention.

Two-thirds of the members of the G. A. R. are said to be in favor of the restoration of the canteen at army posts.

A fund of $100,000 for church extension and missionary work has been raised within the past year by the Baptists of Philadelphia.

The tenth annual convention of the Anti-Saloon league of America opened last night at the Jamestown exposition. The league will be in session four days.

Interurban lines will be one of the important subjects discussed at the immigration and good roads convention. The value of interurban lines to Paducah could not be overestimated. Representatives of foreign capital will be at the convention and if the business men of Paducah want interurban lines they should show their interest by getting to work to make the convention a success.

"Beware the Ides of March!" How about September 20 and 21? To be indicted for maintaining a nuisance, if you do not heed its warning, is not a pleasant possibility.

Good housekeepers begin to prepare in advance for their annual fall house cleaning. Only one day before the city cleaning days. Are you getting ready for it?

We knowed it would come to this. A Hoozier who was visiting in Kentucky the other day drunk some creek water and was made as sick as a dog. It was afterwards discovered that he had swallowed a bunch of snakes in the water. It served the skate right. Anybody who will drink Kentucky water when he can get Kentucky whisky deserves to get his tank filled with snakes.—Hardeman Free Press.

JUDGE HINES

REPLIES TO LETTER OF LOUISVILLE MINISTERS.

State Central Committee Was Powerless to Appoint Commission in Primary.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 18.—Judge Henry B. Hines, chairman of the Democratic campaign committee, today replied to the letter addressed to him by the ministers of Louisville. Judge Hines informs the ministers that he and Governor Beckham and Judge Hager were in favor of the appointment of a commission to conduct the primary in Louisville this fall. However, when the city and county committee refused to appoint this commission, the state central committee, under the party law, was powerless to act.

LOST HIS WHISKEY

CALAMITY BEFELL MAYFIELD CITIZEN.

The Police Are Asked to Probe Mystery—Watch and Money Left in Pocket.

Suffering from an over abundance of Paducah liquor, B. Beasley, from Graves county, went to sleep in the weeds near the Illinois Central depot yesterday afternoon late, missed both trains to Mayfield, and when he awoke found that his pint of whiskey and ticket home were gone.

Beasley stated to Patrolman Henry Singery that he had been having a time in Paducah, and was "easing up." He started for home yesterday afternoon, intending to take the 4:30 train, but took on too much "fuel" with the result that he grew sleepy and went to the woods for a nap. He slept soundly and did not awake until 4 o'clock this morning. Beasley is sure he was not "touched," because he had a few dollars left in his pocket and his watch was also intact. He was directed around the south curve to the yards where he might catch the local home to Mayfield.

RACE HORSE MAN RECEIVES LIGHT FINE.

Henderson, Ky., Sept. 18.—Frank Kuhn, of Nashville, Tenn., was tried in the Henderson circuit court yesterday, charged with having punched out the eye of Clarence Willingham, a Henderson man, and was given a fine of $75. The light fine was due to the fact that Willingham refused to prosecute. Kuhn is a race horse man and had a difficulty with Willingham, at the Henderson fair some weeks ago. In the altercation, Kuhn is said to have punched out Willingham's right eye with an umbrella. The injured man sued for $10,000 damages, but compromised for $200. The grand jury then indicted Kuhn.

Communicated.

To the Evening Sun:

The writer was a delighted and entranced listener last evening to one of the most unique, interesting and ablest lectures ever delivered in Paducah by Judge Willis Brown. He gave a thorough and vigorous exposition of his wise methods in dealing with vagrant boys, abounding in uplifting accounts of special instances of depraved boys redeemed from their evil ways. There was only a fair audience present composed of the best people of Paducah, women, and children! MEN that should be interested in everything concerning the betterment of conditions in Paducah, and who should have been present in numbers to overflow the opera house, were conspicuous by their absence. It was a sin and a shame to the men of Paducah. I believe Mayfield with one-fourth the population of Paducah, could furnish any time a larger audience for such an intellectual and entertaining lecture. This is all I started out to say. Wake up men!

WATTS DEFEATED FOR CHIEF CARMAN

Paducah Candidate Loses in Close Race.

Local Member of Carman's Union Made Hard Fight to Elect Their Candidate.

WERE OFFERED COMPROMISE.

It was a close race that Will Watts the well known Paducah carman, gave Frank L. Ronemus for the office of Grand Chief Carman of the United States, in Chicago at the annual convention closed yesterday. Advice received today from Paducah delegates say that the battle was nearly equal. A compromise was offered in giving Watts the office of secretary, which he held for two years, but the Paducah boy was after something bigger, and stuck it out. The successful candidate has been chief carman for several years and is well known and popular here, where he often comes.

Delegates from the annual carmen convention are expected home tonight. Great interest was taken in the meeting, and local carmen are waiting anxiously for news of the success of Paducah's candidates. They are proud of the hard fight put up by Watts' friends in the convention.

About Railroad People.

Messrs. D. C. Henney and Homer Howard, local Illinois Central machinists, have resigned and say they will leave shortly for Panama to work.

After a hard day's work in the local Illinois Central machine shops, Mr. E. T. McKinney, the well known machinist, of 1034 Clay street, returned home last evening to find his entire family ill in bed. His wife was suffering from a high malarial fever and also his nine-year-old daughter, Annie May McKinney. His six-year-old son, Floyd McKinney, was ill of chills and fever.

Mr. L. T. Hefflin, a carman employed in the local Illinois Central shops, resigned today to go to Louisiana to accept a position as section foreman on the Illinois Central.

Mr. E. Gourieux, foreman of the local Illinois Central freight car repairing shops, is in a serious condition, suffering from a complication of diseases and general break down.

A small wooden cradle, the handiwork of Illinois Central carpenters, was found on General Foreman Joe Walker's desk in the machine shops this morning. Mr. Walker did not show up until several hours after the shops had opened for work, and an investigation developed announcement of the arrival of a new machinist at his home this morning.

Mr. U. H. Clark, chief clerk to Master Mechanic R. E. Fulmer, is in Natchez, Miss., on business.

Traffic in local Illinois Central shop yards was impeded this morning by the derailing of engine No. 849 at the tank.

Born, to the wife of Mr. G. R. Rainey, of Nineteenth and Clark streets, a well known Illinois Central workman, a daughter, this morning.

Bicycles Stolen.

Mrs. Hal Corbett reports the loss of two bicycles from her yard. The wheels belonged to her son and daughter.

Struck by a 100 pound cake of ice thrown from a fast moving "high ball" passenger train over the Illinois Central yesterday afternoon at East Cairo, Lee Hart, of Newbern, Tenn., a block signal installer, suffering a broken leg, and was brought to Paducah for treatment this morning.

The fact that the ice did not hit him full force saved him from probable fatal injuries.

Hart was standing near the tracks waiting for the train to pass. He was at work on block signal stations, and when the baggage car flew past something was seemingly hurled from the door. Hart hardly had time to see it, and was struck before he realized his danger. When picked up his right leg was badly fractured above the ankle.

Hart was taken to Fulton, brought to Paducah at 7:40 o'clock this morning, and placed in the local Illinois Central hospital.

The cake of ice weighed fully 100 pounds, and veered off when it struck Hart. Life would doubtless have been crushed out of him had the block struck solidly. It was thrown off the SOUND LOGIC.

August and September are two months when one has to be very careful about every condition that makes for good, or bad health. The system is usually beginning to feel the strain of the hot summer months and the different organs need but very little to throw them into complete disorder and result in probably a fatal illness.

Good health is assured however if you heed nature's gentle warnings, and are in any measure discreet.

The usual summer disorders—malaria, general worn-out, and run down, conditions, biliousness, stomach and bowel disorders of all kinds, chronic or acute headaches yield readily, and very quickly, to the Osceola treatment, and have no attending ill effects. Usually you are as ill from the customary medical prescriptions as from the illness, but, in Osteopathy you experience none of this. Let me tell you at any time of the great success I am having with the treatment in Paducah. I shall refer you to people you know well for the evidence, and who will tell you just what it has done for them.

Girl Said By Fiance to Have Leaped From Boat Into River.

Terre Haute, Ind., Sept. 18.—Chas. Lincoln told the police today that Mrs. Elizabeth Newton, a divorced woman whom he was to have married soon, jumped into the Wabash river from a boat in which they were rowing last night and drowned. He said he leaped into the water and attempted to save her, but that she fought him off. The police believe his story. Despondency over the illness of members of her family is believed to have made her insane.

SETTLE DIFFERENCES

BETWEEN LOUISVILLE STREET CAR MEN AND COMPANY.

Six Employees Reinstated and Five Report for Duty—Company Was Always Steadfast.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 18.—All differences between the Louisville Railway company and its employees are settled.

The local union of street railway employees, at a meeting Monday night, voted to accept the settlement offered by General Superintendent Funk last week, wherein it is promised that six of the fourteen men, who were discharged, are to be reinstated. There will be no strike.

The report of the action of the men was made to President Thomas Minary and Superintendent Funk by a committee of union men this morning. Superintendent Funk then instructed them to order the six men, to report to him for assignments. Five of them did so before noon and the other is expected this afternoon.

The men who are reinstated are those whose alleged offenses were less grave than the others and at the first meeting of the officials of the company and the union committee the latter was promised that the six men would be given another trial if such settlement would be agreeable to the union. In the cases of the other eight the company's officials, declined to take any action, and refused to reinstate the six until the union men agreed to drop the cases of the eight whom the company refused to reinstate.

RECEPTION

GIVEN FREDERICK B. TILGHMAN AT PALMER.

After Making Arrangements for Paducah Monument Mr. Tilghman Goes to Vicksburg.

Paducah Chapter Daughters of the Confederacy will this afternoon between 3:30 and 4:30 o'clock, tender Mr. Frederick Tilghman, of New York, and H. H. Kitson, of Boston, a reception at the Palmer House. Mr. Tilghman is the son of General Lloyd Tilghman and came here to confer relative to erecting a heroic memorial to his father.

Although Mr. Tilghman is 60 years old, he looks much younger, and would hardly be taken for a man over 45. He shows few gray hairs and attributes his appearance to habits and temperament he got in the city of Paducah.

Mr. Tilghman and Sculptor Kitson, will go to Vicksburg, Miss., tonight to confer with national park commissioners relative to erecting a memorial in the national park in memory of his father.

GERMAN ARMY MAY ADOPT IT.
A New and Economical System of Wireless Telegraphy.

Keenest interest and discussion has been aroused in German scientific army circles by a new system of wireless telegraphy. The invention is being exhibited at the Colonial exhibition at Friedland, near Berlin, and the Kaiser's military authorities have made frequent trips to the little town to see the discovery in practical operation.

The features of the Heinicke system—so-called after the inventor—of special interest to the army are its comparative simplicity, its portability, its lightness, the facility with which it can be erected in the field and its cheapness. The transmitting apparatus and the receiving apparatus are contained in one small case which can be quite easily carried on the back of one man. Its total weight is only nineteen kilograms. A complete station, consisting of this case, the batteries, a fifty-foot pole and a network of thin wires can be handled on the march by three men. The pole is made in sections of about six feet each and its total weight is only thirty kilograms.

The most remarkable feature of the new invention is the fact that it can be erected ready for the transmission or the reception of messages in eight minutes. Four men only are needed for the job. Its radius of communication is about twenty-five miles and its total cost is $1,500.

The advantages over the system now in use in the German army are obvious. The latter apparatus costs $4,000, and 12 men are necessary to transport and erect it. An army trial will probably be given the Heinicke system within a few weeks with a view of general adoption.

It saves more lives than all other throat and lung remedies put together. Used as a cough and cold cure the world over. Cures asthma, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, quinsy, hoarseness and phthisis, stops hemorrhages of the lungs and builds them up. Guaranteed at all druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

"SINS OF SOCIETY" NEW HIT AT DRURY LANE.

Dresses Worn by Women Rival Grand Prix Display and Set Autumn Fashions.

London, Sept. 18.—One more autumn drama was added this week to the long history of the Drury Lane theater. As already cabled, The Sins of Society had a roaring reception at Drury Lane dramas always have.

The play runs through the usual melodramatic gamut of villain, handsome hero, beautiful heroine and leading comic, but it is a series of spectacular triumphs which gives it distinction above its kind. The dresses worn by the women are as magnificent as one sees at the real Grand Prix, and Drury Lane once again sets the autumn fashions.

FLEMING COUNTY CHEERS WILLSON

Remarkable Demonstration in Bluegrass.

Old-Time Democrats Pledge Their Support to Republican Leader at Close of Speech.

NO LONGER ENEMY'S COUNTRY.

Flemingsburg, Ky., Sept. 18.—Beginning the fifth week of his campaign in the heart of the Bluegrass, Augustus E. Willson, the Republican nominee for governor, won the warm support and lasting friendship of Fleming county voters by such a splendid and forceful appeal to their intelligence, loyalty and pride in their state that the like cannot be recalled in this section of Kentucky.

The large audience which crowded the court house here, in spite of an unusually busy farming season, was completely won over by the Republican leader, whose earnestness, sincerity, manly and clean cut declaration of principles and irresistible, and at the close of his homely and neighborly talk there was a demonstration of enthusiastic approval that old residents say is unparalleled in the history of the county.

Old-time Democrats and Confederate veterans, of whom there were hundreds in his audience, almost wept as they pressed forward to grasp the hand of that plain man of the people and pledge him their support in the battle for a better Kentucky, and the affecting scene will long be remembered here.

No Enemies There.

The enemy's country, the beautiful Bluegrass region, has been dubbed by Republican party leaders, but it was evidenced today that the campaign for Kentucky's pride and political honor, which is being waged by Mr. Willson and his associates, knows no enemy among men, and that the mighty uprising of the people against tyranny and bossism in the administration of affairs of the commonwealth is as powerful and unrelenting in this section as the mighty tidal wave of unrest and disapproval of machine methods, which is sweeping the mountains.

Every beautiful blade of bluegrass and kindred traditions of this locality which have helped make Kentucky famous among states, seem to feel the inspiration of the hour, and hope and encouragement smiled from every creature and thing.

Unusually strong Republican organization here is confident and expected to result in a handsome majority for the state ticket from Fleming county. The outcome of recent state elections have placed Fleming in the list of doubtful counties and it has gone both Republican and Democratic by small majorities.

May Join Republicans.

All indications, however, favor its taking a prominent position in the Republican column this fall. Today was Mr. Willson's first visit to the county and there was much curiosity, particularly among Democrats, to see for themselves what sort of a Kentuckian had taken it upon himself to administer such forceful rebukes to the powers that be at Frankfort.

Their curiosity was gratified to the fullest and while the majority of them have no wish or desire to change their political party, it may be said confidentially that they will give one vote for good old Kentucky this fall and that the machine which Mr. Willson told them about will fall in the storm of their displeasure to its annihilation.

It was with simple dignity and commanding earnestness that Mr. Willson recited the wrongs of the common people by the Frankfort oligarchy, with which every thinking voter in the state is now familiar, and the outrages of the 1906 premature Democratic machine primary on these matters," he said. "I am not a tender-foot when it comes to arriving at conclusions and opinions on important matters, and I stand on what I have already said. None of you who have thinking machines are inclined to doubt my sincerity. I believe, so let us do what we can, all pulling together to lift Kentucky out of the mire of unclean politics."

That the government is one-sided was convincingly explained by the speaker. As an illustration of how much better and more prosperous and evenly balanced community is than one in which an opposing contention prevails, he cited Fleming county, where the political conditions are about even, and where he said there was no mismanagement, no graft and no misunderstandings.

Opposes Extreme Partisanship.

To show that he desired to be non-partisan in his argument, he referred to Pennsylvania, a Republican governed state, the recent political history of which is a stretch in the nostrils of good citizens.

"That will show you what a lopsided Republican state comes to," Mr. Willson declared, "and it would be for the best interests of the people there, in my opinion, if the state would go Democratic."

In closing, Mr. Willson said that he strongly resented the imputation that miserable party appeals to prejudice and hatred which had been injected into the machine campaign, could influence the general result of the vote of the people.

"You are men," he said, "and can think wisely and well for yourselves without having to have such as that thrust at you by cheap politicians."

Words of Promise

With its associations of Peter, Frozen Troublesome, Quicksand and many other names which are recalled with a disagreeable flavor by every honorable Democrat in Kentucky.

Just Plain Appeal.

The consequent immolation of McCreary and Hays on the altar of the selfishness of the machine leaders was again related by the Republican leader, not in an abusive, recriminating way to stir up prejudice or rancor, but simply as an appeal from neighbor to neighbor with the honor of Kentucky hanging in the balance.

"I'm just a plain Kentuckian talking to fellow-Kentuckians," said Mr. Willson in his remarks. "I am a believer in the liberty of opinion, and it is none of my business how you vote, but as brothers, can we honestly stand for what has been going on at Frankfort?"

He told his audience that it was a singularly fortunate time for the pleading of the common cause; that no national issues were to be decided this fall and that state affairs entirely occupied the attention of the voters. "To read over and think over the acts of the present administration in the sanctity of your homes," he said to his audience, "and then vote your convictions like men on election day."

"I am not pleading for votes, but for you and your families and for the honor of Kentucky, and I want you to look me straight in the face and see if I am telling you what is not so."

On the temperance issue, the Caleb Powers' controversy and other matters of moment to the voters, Mr. Willson clearly reiterated his attitude.

"I will compromise none of the views which I have nor hedge

SOUTHERN DROPS 200 MEN MAY RELEASE MANY MORE.

Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 18.—C. H. Ackert, vice president and general manager of the Southern Railway company, reached this city last night in his private car, and for several hours was in conference with William J. Oliver, C. S. McManus and J. R. Loyal, superintendent of this division. Mr. Ackert's visit is to look into local conditions.

This past week 200 men have been dropped from the Southern railway shops here, and an announcement has been made that 200 more would be dropped at once. Two weeks ago all of the construction work on the Southern was stopped, the excuse being made that adverse legislation prevented the railroad from being able to borrow money to continue its construction work. Mr. Ackert will go over the situation.

ITALIANS SLAY OFFICER

PROTECTING A WOMAN.

Reading, Pa., Sept. 18.—State Constable Timothy Kelleher was killed here last night by Italians, while he was coming to the aid of a woman whom the Italians were assaulting.

Kelleher was returning to the barracks in Cumru township, by the Spruce street bridge, when he heard a woman's shrieks for help. Running in the direction of the sound he came upon two Italians brutally assaulting their victim. Kelleher was armed only with a pocket billie. Before he had pulled this from his pocket the Italians stabbed him with stilettos.

CHAPTER IV.

SOME one has taken the camp stool," said Lieutenant Drummond. "May I sit here?" And the young woman was good enough to give the desired permission.

When he had seated himself he glanced around, then impulsively closed his hand.

"Miss Amburst," he said, "how are you?"

"Very well, thank you," replied the girl with a smile, and after half a moment's hesitation she placed her hand in his.

"Of course you dance, Miss Amburst?"

"Yes, but not tonight. I am here merely as a looker on in Vienna. You must not allow politeness to keep you away from the floor, or perhaps I should say deck. I don't mind being alone in the least."

"Now, Miss Amburst, that is not a hint, is it? Tell me that I have not already tired you of my company."

"Oh, no, but I do not wish you to feel that simply because we met casually the other day you are compelled to waste your evening sitting out."

"Indeed, Miss Amburst, although I should very much like to have the pleasure of dancing with you, there is no one else here that I should care to ask. I have quailed under the eagle eye of my captain once or twice this evening, and I have been rather endeavoring to keep out of his sight."

"I have found something new about me of which I disapprove, so I have quite determined not to dance, unless you would consent to dance with me, in which case I am quite ready to brave his reproachful glances."

"Have you done anything wrong lately?"

"Heaven only knows! I try not to be purposely wicked and, indeed, have put forth extra efforts to be extra good, but it seems all of no avail. I endeavor to go about the ship with a subdued, humble, unobtrusive air, but this is rather difficult for a person of my size. I don't think a man can drop successfully unless he's under six feet in height."

Dorothy laughed with quiet content. She was surprised to find herself so much at ease with him and so mildly happy. They shared a secret together, and that of itself was an intangible bond linking him with her, who had no ties with any one else. She liked him, had liked him from the first, and his unconcealed delight in her company was gratifying to a girl who heretofore had found none to offer her the gentle courtesies of life.

"Is it the Russian business again?"

"They were waiting for me," "I hope they weren't cross."

"Oh, no! I told them I had been detained. It happened not to be necessary to enter into details, so I was saved the task of explanation, and, besides, we had other interesting things to discuss. This function on the quarter has loomed so large as a topic of conversation that there has been little need of any other subject to talk about for several days past."

"I suppose you must have attended many grander occasions than this. Although we have endeavored to make a display and although we possess a reasonably efficient band, still a cruiser is not exactly designed for the use to which it is being put tonight."

The girl's eyes were on the deck for some moments before she replied, then she looked across at the dancers and finally said:

"I think the ball on the Constellation quite equals anything I have ever attended."

"It is nice of you to say that. Praise from—I won't name Sir Hubert Stanley, but rather Lady Hubert Stanley—is praise indeed. And now, Miss Amburst, since I have confessed my restless wanderings through Bar Harbor, may I not have the pleasure of calling upon you tomorrow or next day?"

Her eyes were dreamily watching the dancers.

"I suppose," she said slowly, with the flicker of a smile curving those enticing lips, "that since you were so very friendly with Captain Kempf tonight he may expect you to smoke a cigar with him, and it will possibly happen that Katherine and I, who are very fond of the captain, may chance to come in while you are there."

"Katherine? Ah, Katherine is the name of the young lady who was with you here—Miss Kempf?"

"Yes."

"You are stopping with the Kempts, then?"

"Yes."

"I wonder if they'd think I was taking a liberty if I brought Jack Lamont with me?"

"The prince?" laughed Dorothy. "Is he a real prince?"

"Oh, yes, there's no doubt about that. I shouldn't have taken the liberty of introducing him to you as Prince Lermonoff if he were not, as we say in Scotland, a real Mackay—the genuine article. Well, then, the prince and I will pay our respects to Captain Kempf tomorrow afternoon."

"Did you say the prince is going with you to Russia?"

Stomach Muscles in Old Age

People should be more and more careful, as age advances, to see that their bowels move regularly. In this way they can keep themselves in good health and prolong life. The bowels are not as active in middle-life and old age as they are in youth, and with the majority there is a tendency to constipation of a chronic and obstinate nature.

To ward off the possibility of serious diseases use Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the great herb laxative compound. It is especially suited to the use of elderly people because it is prompt but gentle in action, and does its work without griping or weakening, as the case with salt, purgative waters and cathartic tablets. These should not be used by children, women, old folks or weak people because they are too violent in action and generally grip. Furthermore, the results are temporary as reaction sets in and the bowels are bound up more than ever.

A remedy like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is very gentle in action and yet thoroughly effective, and as it contains tonic properties, it strengthens the system instead of weakening it. The results are permanent because gradual, and many can in a short time away with the use of all laxatives. It will cure the most chronic constipation, dyspepsia, liver trouble, biliousness, indigestion, or which worked so soon to nature, as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Try it and you will say the same. The price is 50c a bottle or $1 a dozen.

FREE TEST Those wishing to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin before buying can have a free sample sent to their home by addressing the company. The offer is to prove that the medicine is so effective, and is only open to those who have never taken it. Send for it if you have any symptoms of stomach, liver or bowel disease. Gentlest and most effective of all laxatives. It cures all ailments of the stomach, liver and bowels. A guaranteed, permanent home cure. THE PUBLIC VERDICT: "No Laxative So Good and Sure as DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPsin." It product bears purity guarantee No. 17, Washington, D. C.

PARENTS MUST PAY

FOR DEFEATING OF CONCRETE SIDEWALKS BY BOYS.

Instructions to ascertain names of boys responsible for initials and figures inscribed in concrete paving blocks in various parts of the city, were given Street Inspector Alonzo Elliott yesterday afternoon at the regular meeting of the board of public works. If the boys' parents do not stand the expense of new blocks where ever the pavements have been defaced, warrants will be issued against those responsible. Many pavements all over the city show the results of this type of vandalism.

George Langstaff was absent from the meeting.

Street Inspector Elliott was instructed to see that "Cleaning Up Days" on September 20 and 21, were properly observed in the street department.

Ratification of permits for numerous electric signs on streets were made.

Bond of the Memphis Asphalt Paving company for keeping streets and sidewalks in good repair for five years, was referred to Solicitor James Campbell, Jr.

The matter of defective sewerage drainage at Riverside hospital was referred.

Receipt of $232.33 for the use of the street roller was acknowledged from the Memphis Asphalt and Paving company.

Street Inspector Elliott was directed to remove poles blocking an alley between Husbands and Bachman, Sixth and Seventh streets.

A petition for grading and graveling an alley between Murray and Husbands, Sixth and Seventh streets, was referred.

Street Inspector Elliott was instructed to learn who was responsible for the stopping up of a sewer drain pipe at the Palmer house. If the contractors doing work at the Palmer are responsible, the contractors or hotel company will have to pay for cleaning it out, which was done at the city's expense.

Thomas Bridges was given a list of streets left in bad repair after he completed his sewerage contract, and he was ordered to place them in condition.

Other minor routine business occupied the board's time for half an hour before adjournment.

A petition from property owners asking that work on Farley place pavements and gutters be stopped until after winter was read. They feared bad weather would impede the work and leave the pavements in a torn up condition.

C. F. Yates, a property owner, spoke against deferring the work, saying that in bad weather, pedestrians have to "take to the middle of the streets" whether pavements are torn up or not, and that it will be a great relief to rush the work to rapid completion.

The petition was received and filed.

A. Bundman, sewer inspector, asked for an assistant, since the acceptance of sewer district No. 2, nine miles of extra sewers now under his jurisdiction. He has a force of but two men, which he thinks is inadequate. He suggested that the office of assistant sewer inspector and building inspector might be combined. Communication received and filed.

City Assessor Dick asked for assistants in his assessment work; that unless he is allowed help, he will be unable to complete tax books in time. Prayer granted.

A PADUCAH GIRL IN CASTE

L. H. Frank, of Chicago, manager of "Toyland," a musical play which opened The Kentucky here Labor Day, is under arrest in Cairo with baggage of the theatrical company and his cash money under attachment, charged with absconding and leaving members of the company stranded at Corinth, Miss.

In the case was Miss Nettie Farnbaker, daughter of Colonel M. J. Farnbaker, who is now in Paducah to start up a moving picture show. She joined the show in the south several weeks ago.

Frank's experiences since he left Paducah have been strenuous. The show did not play over expenses at many stands, and arrangements were made to bring it back to its starting point in Chicago to play in the White City, but Frank skipped out with baggage and scenery for Chicago, it being alleged that he intended organizing a new company when he arrived.

Arrests of Frank were frequent in the south and he had a fight or two with his principal comedian, Wm. C. Cushman, to enliven his flight. Cushman alleges he owes him $80 in salary and owes the company $350. Cushman followed Frank to Cairo from West Point, Miss., where Frank had gotten away from the comedian. Several members of the company were left stranded at Corinth.

CULLEYS SHOW HEAVY TEAM

High School Boys Must Use
Tact This Year.

High School Teams Average Weight
130 and 135; Culley's 155 and 160.

HOW THEY WILL LINE UP.

Perfect signal codes, and new and tricky plays, will be necessary for the High school team to acquire if it expects to do anything with the Culley team, states Coach Leo Keller. Yesterday first practice of the High school team was held, and the boys showed up rather light. Last year the High school boys showed up heavy, and had easy sailing because they carried so much weight. This year conditions are reversed, the Culleys carrying greater weight. Culleys will average from 155 to 160 pounds, while the High school boys will average between 130 and 135.

Yesterday High school candidates lined up for trials. The team will be selected from the most apt candidates, and following is a list of those who will contend and the positions they will fight for: Weights of candidates follow also.

62,000 Against Charter.

Chicago, Sept. 18.—The new charter authorized by the state legislature for the city of Chicago, was rejected by the voters at yesterday's special election by a majority of over 62,000. A little more than half the registered vote was cast, the final figures unofficially showing 59,446 ballots for the charter, and 122,054 against it. The total vote polled was 180,500, out of the registered vote of 361,068. Mayor Busse issued a statement in which he said that although the charter contained several defects, on the whole it would be a good thing for Chicago as its adoption would enable the administration to do many things in the way of public improvements which would be of a lasting benefit.

SOMETHING WRONG IN ROGER'S HEAD

Declares Physicians Regarding Standard Oil President.

Face Is Distorted, Speech Affected and Left Side No Longer Normal.

IS SUFFERING FROM PARALYSIS.

New York, Sept. 18.—The reports that Henry H. Rogers, of the Standard Oil company, had been stricken with a grave illness and was in a most dangerous condition, received sworn and startling confirmation in Boston today.

"His face is distorted; his speech affected; his left side is no longer normal. In three months he has signed but three papers, and one of them was a power of attorney. He cannot transact any business or even discuss ordinary affairs. He told me to take charge of his entire interests, and when I asked the reason for this he said: 'Because I'm about done.'"

This was the combined testimony of Mr. Rogers' son and his brother-in-law, Urban H. Broughton. It was given under oath before Judge Hammond, of the Massachusetts supreme court, today, when the witnesses came to prove that the oil magnate is not physically or mentally able to appear in person to defend the suit for $50,000,000 that has been brought against him by C. M. Raymond, of Somerville, for alleged conversion of royalties in connection with petroleum production.

And when Justice Hammond had heard the evidence of Mr. Rogers' serious illness from the lips of his own family he declared "it would be cruel to compel his attendance in court," and dismissed the appeal for an immediate trial.

Just how long Mr. Rogers is likely to live, his physicians will not say. But all of today's testimony gives proof positive to the statements that he is suffering from paralysis and that he will never take up the "real presidency" of the great oil trust again.

It was on July 25 that the magnate, heat stricken, was rushed to his summer home in Fairhaven in a desperate effort to save his life. At that time, when his friends first became alarmed, it was announced that he had collapsed at his desk, and was in a most serious condition. The reports were denied, but since that day Mr. Rogers has never been back to his office at No. 26 Broadway, and has been steadily growing worse. The strain of the recent Standard Oil troubles, added to the Lawson attacks and the litigation which was then pending against the company had worried him until, as Dr. Pratt testified, "something became wrong with his head."

Mr. Rogers gave up all his business affairs and abandoned himself to a complete rest.

Wrongness in Head.

Then came the Landis anti-trust decision fining the Standard $29,000,000. The crimes proved against the company, which engendered this decision, were committed while Mr. Rogers was its working head. The blame for the action of the court, fell upon his shoulders. His personal worry and troubles increased, he grew worse—because of the increasing "wrongness" in his head.

Yesterday the attorneys appeared for Elizabeth Greenough and C. M. Raymond, who wants Rogers to pay her $50,000,000 for usurpations of petroleum royalties, before Judge Hammond for the second time, demanding that the magnate be brought into court to give testimony of his guilt or innocence in the case. First on the stand was Dr. Pratt, the attending physician upon the sick man. The lawyer brought out that Mr. Rogers' condition was very grave but he wanted more details and was trying to get them when Judge Hammond interrupted.

"He has just told you that there was something wrong in the patient's head," he said; "can't you see why he does not want to go into any further details? If you can't you are the only one present who does not."

This alarming reference to the mental condition of Mr. Rogers cut counsel short and created a sensation in the court room.

SAY HOCH WILL FREE DALTON.

Kansas Bankers Give Up Fight To Block Ex-Bank Robber's Pardon.

Topeka, Kan., Sept. 18.—Coffeyville bankers who headed a movement to prevent the pardon of Emmet Dalton, now out on parole, have given up the fight and say Governor Hoch will pardon the ex-bank robber. Dalton will have to undergo another operation on his arm, which was shattered by gunshot in the raid he and his three brothers made on the Coffeyville banks fifteen years ago. All the bankers of Kansas were asked to protest against Dalton's pardon. Only five have written protests, while a hundred letters ask for his pardon.

CURED TO STAY CURED.
How a Paducah Citizen Found Complete Freedom from Kidney Troubles.

If you suffer from backache—
From urinary disorders—
From any disease of the kidneys,
Be cured to stay cured.
Doan's Kidney Pills make lasting cures.

Paducah people testify.
Here's one case of it:
Mrs. George Romain, 2233 Meyers street, Paducah, Ky., says: "I have been a sufferer for a long time from a general complication of kidney troubles. I was bothered with an aching back and lameness in my shoulders and never was without a pain of some sort even for a single day. I used a great deal of medicine but never got anything that pleased and relieved me so much as Doan's Kidney Pills which I procured at DuBois & Co.'s drug store after learning how they had helped me and they certainly did for I now feel as well as I ever did. They are also easy to take and seem to cure without giving any ill effects." (From statement given in 1900.)

A Permanent Cure.
On Feb. 18 Mrs. Romain said: "I made a statement for publication several years ago telling of the great benefit I had received from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. Now after a lapse of seven years I am glad to say that I have not had an attack since, so I have every reason to believe they effected a permanent cure."

Wink W. Owens, one of the county's most prominent farmers, of the Oak Level vicinity, died at his home Saturday afternoon, after a lingering illness of several weeks, of stomach trouble. His remains were laid to rest in the family burying ground Sunday evening in the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing friends.

The following marriage licenses were issued by County Clerk Henson during the past week: W. F. Stratton to Rosa F. Thompson; Patrick Henry Hughes to Tabitha Elvay Isabel Mathis; W. M. Reeder to Mattie Joe Bryan. Mr. Stratton is a very prominent farmer and this is his second matrimonial venture, while Miss Thompson is the accomplished daughter of W. K. Thompson and a sister of our ex-circuit court clerk, P. H. Thompson. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes are two of Marshall county's well known young people and are very popular here. Mr. Coy Reeder, as he is called, is the present efficient county attorney and a promising young lawyer, while his bride is the charming and popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Judge Bryan, both of whom have a host of friends throughout the county.

Mrs. Lucille Landon and daughter Hildah, R. A. Logue and family and Mrs. Logue of New Albany, Ind., and Will Gardner of Paducah, visited Messrs. Rufus Perry and brother Hampton's families in the west part of the county last Sunday.—Tobacco Leaf in Mayfield Messenger.
